Acknowledgements

First and foremost, I pause to recognize the Almighty for giving me grace and writing talent. I thank my wife, DeKisha, and my children, lil' Cleophas and Jasmine, AKA "Jazzy", who have been a constant inspiration and have endured the time and dedication it has taken for me to prepare this reading selection.

I would like to thank all my family (mom, dad, brother, sister, mommie house, gdad, Grand), all my friends, all my co-workers, and business confidants (Cleophas Jones Sr., Clendell Jones, G. Kelly, L. Thompson, A. Tartt) who have supported me in this endeavor. I appreciate my illustrator – Nnanna Akwu, my colleagues for helping to proofread and edit this work, and my book consultants for publishing this book.

And following protocol, and for all those I forgot to call...Thank you.

This book is dedicated to children all over the world who are inspired to read and aspire to lead...that's all children.

DOC CEE AND MISS LIVY ARGUE IN THE U.S. SUPREME COURT

Book Summary

Do you aspire to be a lawyer, or maybe a court judge? Do you wonder what would it be like to be a United States Supreme Court Justice?

Well, this “UReadULead” selection describes a situation in which brilliant lawyers, Doc Cee and Miss Livy, argue a case in the United States Supreme Court in the effort to equalize learning for all children in America. Enjoy reading this energetic, rhythmic, rhyming poetic masterpiece, and let’s see if our lawyers will emerge victorious in the eyes of the nine expert U.S. Supreme Court Justices.

Character Trait(s)

Fairness, Respect, and Citizenship

Fairness is when you are just with someone and treat the person the way you would want to be treated. Respect is your ability to show consideration and appreciation for someone whether or not you like the person or agree with the person. A citizen is someone who demonstrates good behavior and obeys the rules in society. You should make a habit of being fair and respectful to yourself and others at all times. These very important traits help build great character and enable you to become a model citizen.

In this story, Doc Cee and Miss Livy help an entire nation, and perhaps the entire world, to understand that all people, young and old, and especially children, should be treated fairly, and with respect. We also should have rules and laws that ensure fairness, a matter of being just and right. It is important that you be able to exist in this world and be able to play and work with other people in a dignified and responsible manner. This helps you to become a great, caring and respectful citizen.

Who Are Doc Cee and Miss Livy?

Doc Cee and Miss Livy are really cool twins who share exciting adventures at home, in school, and anywhere they end up going.

Doc Cee, the elder twin, is a genius known worldwide for his advanced math and science skills. He is highly intelligent, enterprising, and athletically inclined. A natural leader, he finds himself at the forefront of situations. And he always wears his signature hat!

Miss Livy is the loveable, adorable twin sister who uses her wit to aid her brother and friends in their adventures. Like Doc Cee, she is academically gifted and athletically inclined. She loves reading, science, law, music, and gymnastics. Sometimes, she and her friends engage in learning adventures of their own.

DOC GEE AND MISS LIVY ARGUE IN THE U.S. SUPREME COURT

In a Yale law classroom, on the north side of town,
The professors were listening, all gathered around.
Also in the room, were reporters who report:
They wanted a preview of what would happen in court.

Wearing nice business suits – their briefcases in hand,
The lawyers prepared for battle in the highest court in the land.
Doc Cee and Miss Livy were the lawyers for the case,
And the U.S. Supreme Court was the ultimate place,
Where the highest U.S. Court would hear from those two,
That an old and bad law was now time to undo.

“Separate but Equal” was the law they opposed,
And they would not quit until it was disposed.
With the country skyped in, this would turn out to be,
An important legal day in the nation’s history.
